

HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

I'm not in the habit of writing a column while listening to a baseball game on the radio, but that was the situation Monday night.

Just as I sat down at my 1928 Corona to comment learnedly on Luke Easter's mighty wallop of Sunday afternoon, Luke strode to the plate at Lane Field and busted another one over the fence.

It sounded like the crowd didn't object, either.

Well, it took Luke Easter to get me steamed up about the Padres; I was aware they were in second place but was only mildly interested. Then big Luke came to town and I remembered the prodigious feats he performed here in 1949.

His Sunday blast was a 490-footer, according to the licensed surveyors in the press box. I don't doubt it.

At this point, Ocean Beach Night at Lane Field Aug. 3 sounds like a good idea.

Back in the 1920's I saw Babe Ruth hit one approximately the length of Balboa Stadium. Yeah, they played baseball there then—the diamond was at the north end—and in this winter exhibition game Ruth finally connected and the ball disappeared southward in the general direction of San Diego Bay.

I seem to recall that Ty Cobb played in the same game and stole second, third and home. However, it may be that the tale has grown with the years.

Kathy Chabot, of Point Loma, won the 11-year-old girls' title in the La Jolla Tennis Tournament last week. She knocked off Ann Keeney in the finals, 6-3, 6-3.

Tennis is a lot of fun, if you don't take it too seriously. I fought, bled and died on the tennis court for dear old State, myself. My last attempt at the game was about 10 years ago when a girl beat me—and that was all brother.

There's a vast difference, you know, between men's and women's tennis. Maureen Connolly, the world champion, was defeated not long ago by the No. 4 man at UCLA, as I remember.

That doesn't mean she isn't a good tennis player. She's terrific—and honest enough to admit that she doesn't belong on the same court with a top-flight male performer.

Leaping lightly from tennis to art, I noted that one T. Truitt Hanafin, of La Jolla, used harsh words the other day in criticizing the criticism leveled at the Art Section of the County Fair by Donal Hord, sculptor.

Hanafin tried to harpoon Hord by describing his published review as "the self-centered fumbblings of a local stonecutter."

Well, I never heard of Hanafin but it's my personal opinion that Hord probably is San Diego's only authentic practicing genius. His sculptured figures are superb; his reactions to other art forms are sound and sensitive.

Hord wrote: "There was little in the show that seemed to have any relationship with this part of the Pacific Coast."

Hanafin pooh-poohed "our trite and obvious pink deserts and busy waves."

I don't know anything about so-called "modern art," but I do know that a screwball in L.A. threw some eggs, ink, blobs of paint and a quart of red ants at a canvas and had it hung in a big art gallery there as a gag.

The arty set thought it was hot stuff.

Anyone for tennis?

Sewer Bond Committee Selects D. R. Giddings

Douglas R. Giddings was selected as temporary chairman of a 15-man committee organized to study a new sewer bond proposal, at a meeting in Civic Center Tuesday.

The committee will choose an engineer to study San Diego's sewage disposal problems, it was decided. The committee then will study the engineer's report before submitting recommendations to the City Council regarding another sewer bond proposal to be submitted to the voters.

Giddings said a permanent chairman would be selected at the next meeting of the committee.

July 29 at 3:30 p.m. in Mayor Butler's office.

Those present at Tuesday's meeting included Tom Drake, of Ocean Beach, chairman of the Sewer Bond Research Committee; Giddings, Walter Trepte, O. W. Cotton and Roscoe Hazard, all named as opponents of the recently-defeated 16-million-dollar sewer bond issue.

Proponents are R. M. Golden, Walter DeBrunner, A. V. Engel, Edward T. Austin and Dr. Howard A. Ball. Neutrals now include Graydon Hoffman, Lawrence Klauber, Dr. Malcolm Love, Charles Leigh and A. J. Sutherland.

LOCAL CHAMBER WIRES WILSON ON DREDGING

The Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce sent a telegram Tuesday to Congressman Bob Wilson in Washington, D. C., stating the organization "wholeheartedly backs your efforts to secure appropriation for dredging Mission Bay Channel and awaits results."

Signed by Harry La Dou, president, the Chamber's telegram asked Wilson "to please convey our views to Senators Knowland and Kuchel."

President Eisenhower recently asked Congress to appropriate $750,000 for widening and deepening the channel. Congressman Wilson has been pushing the project for some time.

New Storm Drain Being Installed And Standpipe Nears Completion

A new 48-inch storm drain is being installed from the south side of Talbot, across the street and will follow the natural drainage channel of Canon Road, according to Charles A. Smith, assistant drainage engineer in the City Engineering Department.

The pipeline is replacing a 24-inch existing line. It was requested by the Westminster Presbyterian Church group, who plan to build a church at the Talbot and Canon site. The new storm drain will extend only to the northern property line of the church. Walter Barber is the contractor.

Golden To Head S. D. Chamber

Robert M. Golden, who will serve as president of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce in 1955, is a Peninsula resident. He and his wife, Dorothy Golden, and their two children, Morley, 12, and Marilyn, 7, reside at 3641 Elliott St.

Golden, 33, will succeed A. Vern Engel as the Chamber's president in January. He was elected by the board of directors.

Vice-president and general manager of the M. H. Golden Construction Co., he has lived in San Diego since 1926. He is a graduate of Stanford University and served as an infantry lieutenant during World War II.

Kidspiration Set For Next Week

The third annual Kidspiration will be conducted at the Assembly of God Church, Cape May Ave., and Ebers St., July 26, from 30 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. according to the pastor, Rev. Fred Cottrell.

This will be a time of Bible stories, songs, fun, and prizes for the children. Rev. M. Thompson, who has had much experience with this type of children's meetings, will be in charge.

All children are invited. For transportation, call AC-3-5359.

ANGLERS HAIL LARGE SCHOOLS OF ALBACORE

Albacore fever spread throughout the southland like an epidemic early this week as the result of the sudden reappearance of the longfins in big schools 35 minutes to 1 hour 15 minutes southwest of North Coronado Island.

The albies crossed up the experts by acting contrary to all predictions and working well in 70 degree water, ordinarily considered too warm for the longfins.

The fish mostly were small ones of 12 to 14 pounds, but there were enough big ones mixed in to give San Diego Yellowtail Derby anglers a spark of interest. Two of the largest taken Saturday were identical twins of 26 pounds 2 ounces, one caught by Jim Morgan, of San Diego, and the other by Z. Lipkin, of Canoga Park.

The La Jolla and Point Loma help beds continued to prove the hot spots for anglers in quest of all-around sport, and good catches of calico bass and barracuda, with some yellows and white sea bass tossed in for good measure, were made there.

Ten-year-old Mary Kay Emery, pianist, will be presented as soloist with the San Diego Youth Symphony in a concert to be given at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 25, in the Greek Theatre on the campus of California Western University. Walter Peterson will conduct.

Mary Kay, who taught herself to play at the age of three, was recently acclaimed for her musical talent in Burbank where she was presented with the San Diego Youth Symphony at a Starlight Theatre performance. She has been asked to play with the Burbank Youth Symphony as soloist next year. She has studied music intermittently since she was four.

The San Diego Youth Symphony is sponsored by the San Diego Park and Recreation Department and comes to the University as an event on their "Festival of the Arts" calendar. The public is invited.

Blind Industries Now Located In Ocean Beach

The Blind Industries of California has established a shop and salesroom at 1861 Bacon St., Ocean Beach. The phone is AC-2-1101.

This private company, owned and operated by courageous blind persons, was started in 1947 by David H. Strelow and John L. Bauer of Los Angeles.

With only $1200 between them, they started out with three looms for rug making, plus a few other small items of equipment, and today the business has grown to 40 men and 13 looms and over 30 products.

Mrs. Ester Gray, for 30 years a resident of Ocean Beach, is employed at the Bacon St. address. Strelow is general manager.

Quality products include hand-loomed rugs, dish towels, aprons, table cloths, shopping bags, brooms, mops and assorted cotton goods.

Expert chair caning and hand weaving also are done.

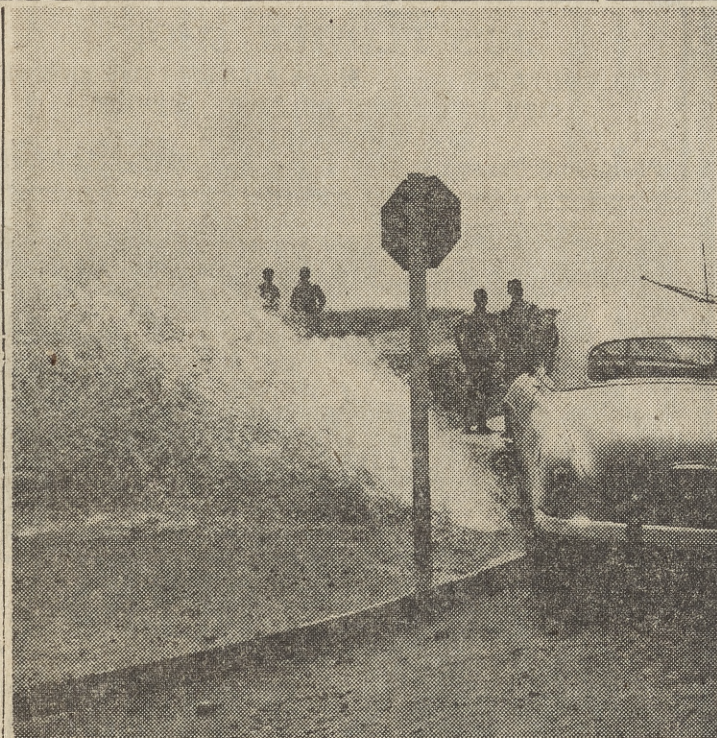

Blind and handicapped salesmen and saleswomen are employed, Strelow said.

Moose Lodge Is Planned For O. B.

Plans are now in progress to institute a new Moose Lodge in Ocean Beach according to information received from Membership Director, Ray B. Goodman, who stated that the Local Order of Moose owns and operates the "Child City" at Moosehart, where children of departed members are given care, education and a vocation. The "Child City" is situated on the Fox River and through it runs the Lincoln Highway and is within an arm's reach of Aurora, Illinois. Goodman further stated that in addition to the magnificent House of God which was dedicated in 1952, the Family Fraternity will dedicate a new High School Building on August 22, 1954, at a cost of 1,250,000.00.

The Local Order of Moose also owns and operates the "City of Contentment" at Moosehaven, Florida, where the aged members and their wives spend their twilight years free of care, in happiness and with peace of mind.

Midget Baseball Team Beats Four Opponents

League play is under way in both softball and baseball for teams representing Ocean Beach Community Center.

The Midget baseball team (boys 14 and under) has defeated Frontier, Azure Vista and Cabrillo in league games, and Escondido in a practice encounter.

Last Thursday they won what may have been the championship game, defeating Cabrillo 3 to 2. In the fifth inning, with the score 2-0 against them, Ray Hermans hit a home run with Kennedy Ohlin on base.

They won the game in the sixth when Bill Fontana got a hit and was squeezed in from third by Hermans, who thus accounted for all three runs.

Ohlin and Cabrillo's Johnny Rebello pitched great games. Billy Jackson played heads-up ball at short for Ocean Beach, saving the game on two occasions with fine plays.

The Midgets may be on their way to Lane Field for the city championship if they keep up the good work.

HAWAIIAN LUAU PLANNED HERE

Dewey Mookini, formerly of Honolulu, will stage a Hawaiian Luau (feast) in an outdoor patio adjoining the Bamboo Inn at the corner of Newport Ave. and Abbott St., during the Daz-O-Fun Carnival.

The luau Saturday, Aug. 14 at 3 p.m. will feature Kalua pig, chicken long rice, Lomi Salmon and pineapple, said Mookini. He has operated the Bamboo Inn for nine months following service in the Marines during which he was a rifle instructor at Camp Mathews.

Hawaiian entertainment during the afternoon Aug. 14 will include Hula dances, music and songs, according to Mookini.

He said that Hawaiian dishes will be sent here by plane from the Islands for the luau. He is entering a float in the Daz-O-Fun parade, to be decorated with flowers flown in from the Islands.

Reservations for the luau may be made at the Bamboo Inn or with Charlie Freeman.

Two Churches Receive New Pastors

Sacred Heart Church in Ocean Beach and St. Charles Borromeo Church in Loma Portal will receive new pastors this week.

The vacancy at Sacred Heart, created by the sudden death of Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward Hannon, will be filled by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis Dillon, rector of St. Joseph's Cathedral since February, 1947.

Rev. William Bergin, pastor of St. Charles Borromeo, will succeed Msgr. Dillon as rector of the cathedral. His Loma Portal pastorate will be taken over by Rev. William J. Cooney, who has raised to the rank of Domestic Prelate.

Sunday mass schedules at Sacred Heart are 7, 8:30, 10, 11 and 12 noon.

Rev. Cooney, new pastor at St. Charles Borromeo, joined the chaplain corps in 1943 and served in Africa, Italy and France during World War II. He has served at St. Joseph's Cathedral, at Redlands and Big Bear Lake, and in 1952 was named pastor of San Geronimo, Beaumont, where he remained until last fall.

At St. Charles Borromeo there are six Sunday masses—at 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 noon.

Ocean Beach Carnival Is For Entire Family

The Daz-O-Fun Carnival in Ocean Beach Aug. 13-15 will be a colorful community entertainment featuring Hawaiian atmosphere and fun for the entire family.

That was the announcement yesterday by Joe Richardson, chairman. He said a Royal Hawaiian court will be chosen to honor the queen, "Miss Ocean Beach," on Sunday the 15th and preside over the Talent Show.

Three additional entries have been received for the queen contest sponsored by the V.F.W. They are Carolyn Bolen, 16, sponsored by the Sunset Inn Cafe; Theresa Uhl, 17, sponsored by Ted Macconnell, and Caroline Zaruba.

Mrs. Bettie Knauer, chairman of the queen contest, said that Miss Ocean Beach will be selected Saturday, Aug. 14, and will be crowned Sunday the 15th.

All contestants will ride in the big parade Friday, Aug. 13, which will start the carnival. Deadline for entering floats and decorated cars in the parade is July 30, said John Pierce, chairman.

"We want more entries from individual merchants," he added. Richardson said that tickets are selling well for Ocean Beach Night at Lane Field Tuesday,

Aug. 3, when the red-hot Padres play the front-running Hollywood Stars. With those attending from this area expected to wear Hawaiian costume, this will advertise the carnival throughout the city.

Tickets are being sold by Kiwanians, Lions and other business men, shooting at a minimum goal of 500. Profits go to local youth and charitable activities.

Richardson said that persons who can help with the carnival for a couple of hours or more during the three-day celebration should phone him at AC-3-3679.

The Daz-O-Fun Carnival, sponsored by the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce, will feature entertainment, booths, rides and prizes at the parking lot at the foot of Newport Ave.

Drive Carefully Is Good Advice In All Languages

SACRAMENTO—In any language, "Drive Carefully" is still good advice.

Determined to reach the Spanish speaking segment of this state's population, the California Highway Patrol has prepared a series of Spanish language radio announcements which urge safe driving practices.

These messages are designed for use in the areas of the state where people of Latin-America descent, and others who understand Spanish, may hear and profit from them.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I found Ocean Beach, and think it the most delightful spot in the world, with a climate that cannot be surpassed anywhere.

For three years I had searched for my retirement home—a search which took me down the East Coast from Quebec through Florida, then a visit to all of the principal cities of Texas. Then came a trip from San Francisco down the West Coast and I discovered the wonderful City of San Diego.

I wanted an ocean front home with a surf view, and in your friendly Ocean Beach I found it. In La Jolla I went up and down the hills, but did not want an eagle's nest.

My most cherished dreams have come true near the unsurpassed shopping center of Newport Ave.

My friend Mr. Samuel B. Young of the Rosecrans Realty Co., 1205 Rosecrans St., helped me and through his continuous and untiring efforts we found my beloved new home on Pescadero Dr., and I have named it "Estrellita de Pescadero"—Little Star of Fisherman's Drive.

If one can't be happy in Ocean Beach, one can't be happy anywhere.

Thanks, California, for your hospitality.

former Sally Marguerite Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George De Groot, 4702 Pescadero Ave. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland H. Plaisted, 4769 Orchard Avenue. Both young people are graduates of Point Loma High School. They will leave very soon for Albuquerque, New Mexico where Leland will be on duty at the Air Force base there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blanck and 7 year old sonny, have only been in the San Diego area a little while and before moving to Ocean Beach lived at 1188 Scott street in Point Loma, have purchased a home in the 4700 block on Santa Cruz.

Mrs. Molsberry and two children, Vicki and Trudi, have been residing in Coronado with her mother, now are making their home in the 4800 block on Coronado Avenue. They are awaiting the return in May of Sgt. G. A. Molsberry, USA who is on duty in Korea.

Mrs. Herman Werth, 4511 Castellar street, has returned from a visit in New Hampshire. She made the round trip via plane. In Potter Place, New Hampshire she visited with her mother, Mrs. Roland Jenna and in Boston, Mass. spent time with her sister. On their first visit back home in seven years, she enjoyed excursions to the White Mountains, and various outlying communities. She returned to Ocean Beach relieved to feel breezes, and not the stifling heat of the East. It is easy to see that in seven years she is becoming a confirmed Californian.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ritter, are newcomers here from New Iberia, La. and are making their home in the 4800 block on Cape May Avenue, while Mr. Ritter is on duty here with the Navy.

Lt. B. C. Taylor, USN and Mrs. Taylor and their son Gary Levin, returned from the Islands the first of April, and have been living at 4740 Coronado Avenue, until this month when they purchased the home at 2327 Seaside St. formerly owned by Capt. and Mrs. A. S. Keeth, who are summering in Del Mar until their home in Rancho Santa Fe is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell and daughter, Susan, who once before lived here, and for a year

Shirley Batt Weds H. R. Mann July 17

Miss Shirley Batt became Mrs. Henry R. Mann on Saturday, July 17 at 8 p.m. in the Point Loma Methodist church. The ceremony was a candlelight service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of nylon tulle and lace. She carried a white Bible graced by a white orchid and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Shirley Ann Bamford while Mrs. John B. Clark and Mrs. Kenneth E. Gustafson, both sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. The groom's sister, Ruth Mann, served as flower girl.

Walter Mann acted as his son's best man while John B. Clark and Kenneth E. Gustafson were ushers.

The couple will reside in Miami where Mr. Mann is stationed with the United States Coast Guard.

GLAMOROUS SHIN-DIG—Point Loma's tropical isle, Shelter Island, was again steeped in the aroma of exquisite blossoms of old Hawaii when the Kona Kai Club celebrated its first anniversary July 13 to the strains of Lawrence Welk's champagne music and Chef Henry Richer's Kalua Pui Aina Haole (sirloin of beef). Club members who came to dance to Welk's rhythm found 800 others on the limited floor, space, with the newly-laid hardwood floor in the lanai dining room going to waste, as far as dancers were concerned.

Ran into Mrs. Joe Avoyer reviewing her five-year-plan to work in Girl and Boy Scouting for her three youngsters; Mrs. Robert W. Towne and Mrs. Raymond Olson knee-deep in a discussion of PTA legislation; Mrs. M. E. Simas hearing Charles Stevens' views on race segregation in the South; Les Hamm, who believes all work and no play makes Les a dull photographer, and Mrs. Hamm, guests of the management; John Eaves, who's getting an early start on fall politics and pushing his man (we won't mention names but it rhymes with tack-in-tire).

A one-woman battle against the ballerina-length formal was lost when Mrs. Robert Macon succumbed to Dame Fashion and bought a shortened version to wear to the glamorous party. Mrs. Allen Wilson burned the midnight oil while she made her own formal, a distinctive, full length, strapless black and orange patterned cotton.

SHIRLEY BATT became the wife of Henry R. Mann in a Candlelight Service in the Point Loma Methodist Church last Saturday. The newlyweds will reside in Miami where Mr. Mann is with the U. S. Coast Guard.

Unknown to almost all of the party-goers, there was a special little group celebrating their anniversary, too: Weathering managers, hostesses and maitre-ds, four girls in the dining room celebrated a year at the club. Leona McCully, Jo Finders, Lois Sullivan and Bernice Williams.

During the evening Lawrence Welk made this announcement: "Some of the ladies have asked if they might dance with the fellows in the band. It's all right with me, if the men will dance with the Champagne Lady, Alice Lon." First one on the platform was Mrs. Carl Ackerman who chose singer Gene Purcell for her partner. Last year Mrs. Ackerman danced with Lawrence. Mrs. Vernon Sherwin tripped a light fantastic with short-shorn

Rocky Rockwell. Your reporter tried her best to get up there to dance with the sparkly-eyed clarinet player but an ex-football tackle got in her way—namely, her husband.

SHO NUF FADVERTISING—Have you seen the clever little stickers on the rear windows of cars from Alabama and Florida? The bright words read: "Y'all Come".

DELIGHTFUL HOSPITALITY—Thirteen year old Jan Gerber delights her overnight guests with the quaint old Spanish custom of clapping her hands when she wants attention or service. Upon awakening Jan claps her hands and her mother brings juice or hot tea to the girls. A favorite recipe for her little friends is French toast with sauteed pineapple on top and served with syrup. The cooperative mother is Mrs. Walter Gerber, 2952 Rosecrans.

WHO'S KEEPING FLICKA?—A neighborhood mystery is the long and frequent disappearances of Flicka, a friendly, beautiful, coal-black cat. Flicka, whose Swedish name means "girl", stays away for months at a time, then returns home, fat and so happy to see her mistress again. This has been going on for three years and owner Mrs. Bill Gilbert, 1129 Savoy, would like to know Flicka's second home.

KEEPING UP WITH KATHY—Ten year old Kathy Chabot, 1032 Santa Barbara, won another

er tennis tournament last week-end when she came out on top in the 13-year-and-under division and the 15-year-and-under division in the La Mesa Tournament. Because of her standing as California Junior Girls champion, officials wouldn't allow her to play in her age group. She also won the 15-year-and-under doubles. Kathy's instructor, Wilbur Folsom, who discovered and coached champion Maureen Connolly, says that many mothers think he has some sort of magic he can throw over prospective tennis players to transform them into champs. "It isn't so," he says.

Deadlines being what they are on a weekly, it's becoming extremely difficult to "Keep up with Kathy". Since writing the above item, Kathy Chabot, ten year old Point Loma tennis topper, has swan again. Latest is the 11-year-and-under division of Lt Jolla's 38th Annual Tennis Tournament.

Joint Recital Set For Cal-Western On Monday, July 26

Alice Couchman, soprano, and Austin Faricy, harpsichord, will be presented in a joint recital at 8:15 o'clock, Monday evening, July 26, in Lomaland Hall on the campus of California Western University on Point Loma. They will be accompanied by Robert MacDonald at the piano.

Miss Couchman, a Hoover High School graduate, gave her first full length concert at the age of 13 at the First Baptist Church of San Diego. Since then she has given many concerts on the west coast and in the Redlands Bowl. She won an award from the Music Merit Foundation, an organization devoted solely to aiding young people with unusual musical ability.

The recital is the second in a series of four joint recitals planned on the summer calendar of events for the university's Festival of the Arts. Tickets may be obtained at the university. The price is fifty cents.
